Martin

Kellie Harrington is a passionate Boxer from portland-rou inner Dublin. She was born on the eleventh of December 1989. She was the first Irish Boxer to ever win a olympic gold medal and everyone in Ireland praised her after that! Even though she had the pressure of an entire country she still stayed strong. I find her inspiring because she is really good at what she does. I want to have a sporting career as well, so thats why I find her so inspiring.

She is now 33 years old and is still a Boxer.
