

Mary Robinson

Mary Theres Winifred Robinson, born on the 21st of May, 1944, in Ballina, County Mayo, was the first female president of Ireland.

She had been an academic, barrister, and member of the Irish senate from 1969 to 1989.

I find Mary Robinson inspiring because she has achieved many goals, such as being the first ever female president of Ireland.

BY NIAMH